2022 Ohio/WPA Lenten Retreat
The Spiritual Power of Humility
Submitted by Marianne S. Carmack

The 2022 UOL Ohio/Western Pennsylvania Lenten Retreat on March 26, 2022, the first UOL in-person retreat since the CDC lifted COVID 19 restrictions, met with an enthusiastic response by Clergy and Laity. Held at the parish of SS. Peter & Paul in Youngstown, Ohio who—with generosity of Spirit—invited us to use their facilities to launch a new era. An era affirming and reviving the fellowship and cooperation built over time among parishes prior to the face-to-face isolation of the Pandemic. Seeing everyone who attended from the surrounding area was amazing. And, in the words of retreat goers, the Retreat was not only spiritually uplifting and nourishing, but therapeutic, as well.

The day began with Registration and a continental breakfast, followed by Morning Prayers, our first speaker and discussion, then a discussion of humanitarian aid to Ukraine and other critical resources within the context of serving others, an exceptional lunch, followed by an afternoon exercise for small groups on how to apply humility every day to improve our quality of life and our relationships with one another, and finally completing the day celebrating Great Vespers. Handouts included an Adult themed coloring book highlighting humility, a simple workbook defining the Orthodox Christian virtue of humility with quotations from Proverbs, Church Fathers and Saints, the Consistory’s Road to Pascha flyer, and flyers listing ways we can practice humility.

UOL Retreat April 2, 2022
Submitted by Natalie Bilynsky

On April 2, 2022, for the first time in two years fifty three faithful gathered in Bethlehem, Pa for the UOL Retreat. This was the nineteenth retreat that has been sponsored for east coast UOL members. While nineteen years ago our retreat was only for UOL members, we are thrilled that now our UOL retreat is truly pan-Orthodox. For the last five years we have been working closely with the Carpatho-Russian Church.

Our UOL retreat has become like a family where some members have attended every retreat for the last 19 years. When everyone arrived there were hugs and fist bumps, and everyone was very excited to get together.

Fr. Anthony Perkins served as the Spiritual Father for the retreat. He led morning prayers. Following morning prayers, the entire group gathered for breakfast. This year we allowed for extra time so that everyone could catch up and enjoy each other’s company.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENIOR UOL PRESIDENT

Karen Ferraro

Christ is Risen! Indeed, He is Risen! Христос Воскрес! Воистину Воскрес!

Our 75th UOL Convention is quickly approaching! Have you registered yet? 75 years of UOL Conventions is an incredible milestone and I know the Convention Committee in Carnegie has some wonderful things planned for us! I especially looking forward to Ukrainian Christmas in July on Friday night and the Banquet and Ball featuring the sounds of “Zirka” from Canada on Saturday night! Of course, besides seeing each other face to face for some socializing, we will also have the opportunity to shape the UOL for the next year and beyond. Very important work, indeed. Bring your ideas to grow the UOL and help our beloved Ukrainian Orthodox Church of the USA!

We continue to face challenges with our existing UOL chapters and in establishing new chapters. I can see from my own parish that, although we have growing numbers in church on Sundays, it remains a struggle to get everyone involved. The more hands we have out working in the parishes, the stronger we’ll be.

I would be remiss if I didn’t mention the recent, heartbreaking loss of some- one whose name was synonymous with the UOL. Dr. Steve Sivulich, of blessed memory. Dr. Steve fell asleep in the Lord on Pascha. No one knew more about UOL history and the proper running of a UOL Convention than Dr. Steve. He was truly loved by all of us. May his memory be eternal! We send most sincere condolences to his loving wife, Alice, who is also loved very much by the UOL.

This is my last UOL Bulletin letter from the President, as I have served a full three years and will be replaced by someone wonderful at our Convention. My term has been unusual, to say the least. We had to learn to adapt to using ZOOM to hold virtual UOL National Executive Board meetings, and forego in-person conventions for virtual ones in both 2020 and 2021. Thankfully, I’ll be able to finally chair an in person convention this year! I’ve been honored to have this opportunity to serve the UOL, and with this office, to have served the UOL representative to the All Saints Camp Board. I thank you all for your participation in our virtual con- ventions, meetings, and webinars over the past three years. I’d like to thank the UOL officers for their support. Special thanks to Oleh and Natalie Bilynsky and Marianne Carmack for two years of virtual Lenten Retreats and this year’s return to in-person events. They were wonderful! Thanks also to all our chapter Presidents, who have had a tough job these past three years. Stay strong!

In closing, I ask that you continue praying for our brothers and sisters in Ukraine and those that are refugees in other countries. They have endured the unthinkable. UOL members are encouraged to help their parishes with hu- manitarian aid to Ukraine and, where possible, to help any refugees coming to the USA.

“No exalted above the heavens, O God, and Your glory above all the earth. That Your beloved ones may be delivered, save with Your right hand, and hear me.” Psalm 107:6-7

In Christ,
Karen Ferraro

Palianytsia

On February 24, 2022, Russian forces began their attack on Ukraine. Those with loved ones in Ukraine, eagerly check the news and social media. And those of Ukrainian descent started a new routine of being glued to news segments. Even after two months, Ukraine remains the main topic in the daily news cycle. As with any ongoing story, we’ve seen some coverage of the war repeatedly. You’ve probably noticed every newscaster’s pronunciation of Kiev – or Keed.

Did you happen to hear the word ‘palianytsia’?

For Ukrainian soldiers, palianytsia is a shibboleth. A what? A shibboleth. This is a Hebrew word describing chosen words or phrases used to distinguish outsiders or enemies. In the Book of Judges, an account of the battle between Gileadites and Ephraimites is given. The Gileadites used the word ‘shibboleth’ as a password. Apparently, only Gileadites could pronounce the ‘sh’ sound in shibboleth. The enemy Ephraimites could not. Since then, many countries have chosen their own shibboleths to differentiate friend from foe. Back to present day. Ukrainian soldiers use the word palianytsia as their shibboleth because Russian soldiers can’t pronounce it due to different phonetics in the Russian language. A Russian television host, Olga Skabeyeva, even reported as a password. Apparently, only Gileadites could pronounce the ‘sh’ sound in shibboleth. The enemy Ephraimites could not. Since then, many countries have chosen their own shibboleths to differentiate friend from foe. Back to present day. Ukrainian soldiers used the word palianytsia as their shibboleth because Russian soldiers can’t pronounce it due to different phonetics in the Russian language. A Russian television host, Olga Skabeyeva, even reported.

Unfortunately, she pronounced it ‘paliunytsia’ (which is the Ukrainian word for strawberry) and thus proved on Russian state television that the Ukrainian shibboleth does in fact work.

Now let’s move on to what this word actually means. Palianytsia is a type of bread loaf that is made in a home oven. The crust of the bread often burns

The Ukrainian word for burn is ‘pal’ytyr.’ That’s where the name comes from. Palianytsia follows similar steps to other yeast breads with lots of kneading and waiting for the bread to rise. A slit is usually added to a palianytsia so that it can continue to rise in the oven.

I hope and pray that our beautiful motherland Ukraine shares similarities with Palianytsia in that after experiencing a heated situation and being burned, it rises and comes out even better. Glory to Ukraine!

As the year winds down and we prepare for the 75th Annual Convention in July, it’s time to reflect on the past few months. Although our Convention Committee has been focused on the upcoming Convention, the chapter as a whole has focused on some of our mainstay ministries.

We reinstated our Advent Prayer Pal program, after having to pause it last year because of Covid. It works just like our Great Lent Prayer Pal program in that we are given the name of another parish family member to remember in our prayers as we prepare for the Nativity. We present a small token or ornament to our Prayer Pal on Christmas Day after Liturgy to let them know that they have been a part of our spiritual journey.

Souper Bowl Sunday was another event that made a comeback this year. Our All You Can Eat Souper Bowl Sunday was a huge success! We had 12 different kinds of soups to sample during the lunchtime, as well as quarts to go. It was a yummy way to support St. Andrew’s Society.

January kicked off our yearly pysanky making sessions. We invited everyone in our parish to come and share their creative side, to enjoy some fellowship

75th UOL Anniversary Convention
July 27-31, 2022
Hosted by Sts. Peter & Paul Sr. UOL Chapter, Carnegie, PA

It’s TIME! It’s Time for the 75th UOL Convention!

What is time? One definition is “a nonspatial continuum that is measured in terms of events which succeed one another from past through present to future.” In those terms, thinking about the UOL Conventions, they are a string of events that have continued for 75 years continually succeeding one another. An amazing accomplishment!

But is it time? Time for “what” exactly?

Is it time to join or re-new your UOL Membership?
Is it time to be part of the bigger picture?
Is it time for Faith, Fellowship, and Fun?
Is it time for Leadership?
Is it time for Dedication to our church and youth?

If you answered “YES” to any of the above questions, then it is “time” to attend a UOL Convention before “time” runs out! The past couple years our UOL Conventions have been without the “real” human touch of an in-person convention. While the “zoom / computer screen” conventions have enabled UOL Conventions and UOL Functions to continue, the ‘human touch’ aspect of our conventions which binds us together as a UOL Family has been hurting. Attending a convention in person can provide an enlightening and uplifting experience! “The fellowship of that UOL Convention Body and the commitment to provide for the future of our Ukrainian Orthodox Church as well as the UOL itself were inspiring motivations that I knew I wanted to be a part of.” (Martha X. Musko, 71st UOL Convention Yearbook)

Be a part of the “Bigger Picture” and answer “YES” to the time questions? Come to the 75th UOL Convention to see old friends, make new friends, help plan for the future of the UOL and the Ukrainian Orthodox Church before TIME runs out. We have all seen how delicate and quickly things can change these past couple years. One week we are going to the church and the next we are not allowed! Friends are here one day and gone the next. There was peace in Ukraine and now war. The TIME for chapters and individuals to come back to the UOL and the convention is NOW! Don’t wait until next year or the year after, do it now!

Why? Not just because of who or where a convention is being hosted, but because the UOL, its chapters and you are important to the Church. “Orthodoxy is our tree trunk, but the UOL and the many chapters are the branches and leaves of this magnificent tree. This is not merely a social organization but one that is a vital part of the spiritual life of each of its members. Through the UOL we all feel connected and a member of an institution much larger and deeper than any individual parish.” (Pani Matka Maria Norton, 71st UOL Convention Yearbook)

A few days ago, a small circle of people started talking in a group then a few more joined and made the circle larger. We all were talking and remembering past conventions, how people met, what was going on with the upcoming convention. More people joined the circle, and you could have almost had a small convention. The UOL is truly a family that comes together in all situations for all needs and the Sr. UOL Chapter of Carnegie sincerely hopes you will attend the 75th UOL Convention in July and pull up your chair into our UOL circle of friendship.

MESSAGE
JUNIOR UOL
PRESIDENT

Natalie Hrytsay

Glory to Jesus Christ! Ciało i Ciało Pańskie! On behalf of the Junior Executive Board, I hope everyone had a safe and blessed Paschal season. As we approach the summer I would like to address a few topics. As we all know, our homeland of Ukraine is at war. As Ukrainians and Christians, it is our duty to do everything possible to help out and send resources. To help out, please reach out to your local chapters and ask how you can help. Most chapters have been raising money and collecting items to send over to Ukraine. Anything and everything helps, so please help out. We can also pray. As Orthodox Christians, it is up to us, to pray for peace and safety for our homeland of Ukraine.

Some reminders for the youth of our Church. All Saints Camp will be hosting our Church Camps once again. From July 3-9, the Diocesan Church School Camp will take place. From July 10-23, Teenage Conference will take place. Mommy/Daddy & Me will take place August 1-5, and the St. Nicholas Programs will be from August 5-8. For more information about these programs, please visit the UOC Youth website or reach out to me.

Finally, as we approach Convention, we must keep a few dates in mind.
This year, the 75th Annual Convention will be held in Carnegie, PA from July 27-31, 2022. It will be hosted by St. Peter and Paul Ukrainian Orthodox Church. For all details on attending and events that will occur, visit orthodoxcarnegie.org or reach out to any members on the Jr. UOL Executive board.

Let’s all pray for a peaceful rest of the year and a beautiful summer season.

Yours In Christ,

and to take time to embrace our heritage. We had several pysanky workshops, which were well attended. All of that led up to the big day itself, the 54th Annual Pysanky Sale, held on the Western Palm Sunday. It has become a tradition for many Pittsburghers and a wonderful way to showcase our Ukrainian heritage. This year we sold every single pysanka, every morsel of food was consumed, not a crumb was left on the Bake Sale table, and the Basket Raffle selection was incredible! Matushka Laryssa and Sebastian managed the church’s Ukraine Relief table; selling stickers, window clings, pins, ribbons, yard signs, and other items to raise funds for our brothers and sisters in Ukraine. The Annual Pysanky Sale is a chapter staple, but every organization and church member shares their talents and strengths to welcome our visitors to our parish, to our heritage, and to our faith.
Our first speaker, Fr. Oleg Kravchenko (Assumption of the Virgin Mary Ukrainian Orthodox Church, Northampton, PA), gave an inspirational talk on “The Spiritual Power of Humility,” and then, Fr. John Charest facilitated a “Question & Answer” Session. Fr. Oleg, along with Fr. Mykola Zomchak, deftly and skillfully responded to our many questions and concerns about reconciling the “virtue” of humility with our emotional, psychological, and spiritual well-being given our anger, thoughts and feelings as we confront the unprecedented attack and atrocities inflicted on our homeland Ukraine.

Learning how we can align our personal response with the right belief of Orthodox Christians surely informs our future thoughts and actions as we seek peace, continue our humanitarian efforts, and defend our Homeland.

It was a powerful discussion. Indeed, as one participant said, “we could not possibly ignore ‘the elephant in the room’.”

Following this discussion, our focus turned to serving others—a critical element of “Humility.” Stephen A. Haluzsczak (Carnegie, Pennsylvania) discussed how Western Pennsylvania organizations and non-profits are pooling regional resources to coordinate a continued response to this humanitarian crisis, preparing for an influx of refugees and emigres as well as continuing aid to Ukraine. He discussed how to ensure donations are used for the purpose intended, including: humanitarian aid to the Ukrainian people, to refugees fleeing west in Ukraine and to other countries, and in support of Ukrainians militarily defending our homeland. Stephen also discussed a resource developed by the Ukrainian Cultural and Humanitarian Institute (UCHI), a Pittsburgh non-profit. This handbook, entitled “Welcome to the USA: A Handbook for New Immigrants” or “Українською мовою – Welcome to the USA: A Handbook for New Immigrants,” is available online on the UCHI Website https://uchi-us.weebly.com

UCHI’S Handbook, first published in 2005, a Ukrainian-language document, contains information vital to integration into American Society, including immigration, culture, finance, laws, and services and offers ways to involve recent Ukrainian immigrants more effectively in established Ukrainian-American communities. To download a copy of this comprehensive guide, paste this URL in your browser: https://uchi-us.weebly.com/welcome-to-the-usa.html. The third edition with additional material will soon be available.

Because of unforeseen technical constraints, we were unable to present “The Hymnography of Humility.” We will be publishing the video segments created by Fr. Silouan Rolando, and a ZOOM meeting to discuss content following Pascha is in the works. As usual, Fr. Silouan’s talk gives wonderful insights into the etymology or development of Orthodox hymnography (the art of composing hymns) and illuminates how our hymns school us about Humility as part of the powerful day-to-day teaching of our liturgical tradition.

Our Ohio/WPA workgroup expresses profound gratitude to our speakers Fr. Oleg Kravchenko and Fr. Silouan Rolando, for their outstanding work and presentations; to our host pastors Fr. John Charest (Facilitator), Fr. Ivan Tchopko, and Fr. Mykola Zomchak; to Fr. Steve Repa for sharing his wisdom; to Fr. Deacon Cliff O’Neil for his presence and participation; to Stephen Haluzsczak for his insights and sharing of resources as we move forward with supporting Ukraine; and to the Parish of SS. Peter and Paul for their welcoming hospitality.

We would like to acknowledge all those who produced the retreat, including Fr. Ivan Tchopko; Fr. John Charest; Chuck Woloschak, President of the SS. Peter & Paul’s (Youngstown) Church Council; Annie Woloschak, Secretary of SS. Peter & Paul’s UOL Chapter; UOL members Susan Perankovich, Shirley K. Duffy, Esq., Pauline Witkowski; Gregory Ulrich; and Kathy Zebel, Carol Rogenski, and Annie Woloschak for singing the responses at Vespers. And, most especially, each participant from SS. Peter and Paul, Carnegie; SS. Peter and Paul, Youngstown; St. John the Baptist, Sharon; St. Vladimir’s, Pittsburgh; Holy Virgin, Arnold; and St. Mary’s, McKees Rocks and those who joined us on ZOOM. Thanks to Olena Cheren for setting up a gift shop to satisfy needs for all things Ukrainian, especially a wide array of items to show our support for Ukraine. A special thank you to Fr. Mykola who in addition to everything else took pictures of the retreat—otherwise we might not have had any. And last, but certainly not least, to Karen Ferraro for her continuous support and active participation in producing this retreat, and Chris Mills and Matsushka Laryssa Charest for their support in sending out information about the retreat. There was a gift given to fund the retreat in remembrance of +The Very Rev. Mitred Fr. John Harvey, +Dinah Fedyna, MD, and +John and Mary Shabatura.
The St. Francis Center for Renewal is absolutely beautiful and the sisters at the center were excited that we had returned for our Lenten Retreat. This year the retreat focused on the services of Holy Week and we were blessed that Fr. Anthony agreed to be our speaker. Fr. Anthony started the retreat with a review of how the services of Holy Week can serve as a method to heal.

The retreat focused on each service of Holy Week in detail. It was amazing to learn about the details of each service and every retreat participant stated that they were inspired by each discussion.

We were honored that His Eminence Metropolitan Antony participated in the retreat for the full day. He also came with five seminarians who remained for the full retreat.

We were also excited that several Juniors, including our National Junior UOL President, Natalie Hrytsay, attended the retreat. In the afternoon the Juniors spent some time together and wrote pysanky.

We were so excited to have the UOL Retreat in person and are so grateful to Fr. Anthony Perkins. He was inspiring and prepared us for the services of Holy Week. We are so thankful for all of his support with the Retreat. He is truly a blessing! The retreat was a wonderful way to prepare us for Pascha and we are so thankful to him for his dedication to the UOL Retreat. May he be blessed for many years!

Christ is Risen! The Pascha season always brings festivities and high spirits, and the Saint Vladimir Junior UOL has been working hard to make this year special. In the weeks leading up to Pascha, the parish as a whole collected, organized, and shipped much needed goods to Ukraine during this time of war. Three of the juniors attended the Lenten Retreat in Bethlehem, PA for a reflective and solemn day in preparation for Pascha.

The juniors came together on Lazarus Saturday to plant flowers, make palm crosses, and package Easter breads. On Palm Sunday, juniors pinned palm crosses on parishioners as they entered church, and hosted an Easter egg hunt for the youth of the parish. Also on Palm Sunday they held their annual salad fest to raise funds for the chapter.

On Easter, several juniors were given baskets to deliver to shut-ins of our parish. Lastly, the juniors assembled a sports themed basket for the National Board’s Great Lenten Giveaway. We hope you had a prayerful Easter season surrounded by family and friends.
It has been a while since our St. Vladimir Senior Chapter has submitted an article to the UOL Bulletin. Our chapter has attempted to resume our chapter events despite strict COVID restrictions in the Philadelphia area.

In the fall we sponsored a Thanksgiving dinner and donated all of our profits to All Saints Camp. Each year our chapter has sponsored a Thanksgiving Dinner and donated all proceeds. This year we were able to sponsor the Thanksgiving dinner in person and were thrilled that we raised $1940 for All Saints Camp.

Unfortunately, the COVID restrictions were increased after Nativity so we had to change some of our chapter events. We were able to go caroling, however, as you can see we remained outside and wore our masks. We decided that all of the funds we raised from our caroling would also go to All Saints Camp.

During the convention, our highlight speaker will be Melinda Johnson, author, and Marketing Director at Ancient Faith Ministries.

Melinda is the author of Letters to Saint Lydia (AFP, 2010), The Other Side of the Bonfire (LSP, 2012), Shepherding Sam (AFP, 2016), and The Barn and the Book (AFP, 2018), and Piggy in Heaven (Paraclete, 2019). As Marketing Director at AFM, she encourages creative people and organizes events. She describes herself as “A storyteller, an organizer, a connector of people and ideas for the sake of positive and fruitful outcomes.” She enjoys writing, planning, networking, speaking, and learning. Melinda is excited to speak and meet with all of us at the convention. There will be two sessions for her to speak, one with the Sr. UOL and a second with the Jr. UOL. To learn more about Melinda Johnson you can visit and follow her on her blog at Melinda – Melinda Johnson, Writing (melindajohnsonwriting.com).

For Souper Bowl Sunday our Junior UOL Chapter served soup and we had multiple delicious soups available.

Our chapter has been focused on Aid to Ukraine since the horrific invasion. Our chapter member Ruslana Korotinsky has spearheaded collection of items and funds. To date over 220 boxes have been shipped to Ukraine from our parish. We pray that the war ends soon.
Although it has been difficult at times to continue to plan festivities in light of the ongoing battle our relatives face in Ukraine, our 75th Convention Committee has been hard at work putting the finishing touches on a convention to remember for years to come! We are so excited to be hosting this year’s event. Not only are we looking forward to our evening events, but also to sharing our wonderful city. Your kids will love the Carnegie Science Center, the Pittsburgh Zoo, and the Aviary! You may enjoy the Heinz History Center or maybe Phipps Conservatory and Botanical Gardens. Baseball fans may want to catch the Pirates/Phillies game at PNC Park on Sunday before heading back home. Definitely take a ride up the Incline and look over the city from Mt. Washington. There are different walking tours around the city, and of course the Gateway Clipper tours. If shopping is your thing, Saturday is a great day to go to the Strip District and pick up some fun ‘Burgh items. Wholey’s, a Strip District favorite, is a seafood wonderland, complete with a small cafe. If amusement parks are your thing, spend a day at Kennywood or Sandcastle Water Park. Whatever you decide on, we are excited to be your hosts this summer!

Are you ready for the 75th? Remember to book your hotel early, register as a delegate or guest, for the whole Convention or for just part of it. The best deal, of course, is the whole packet, but you can get individual event tickets if that’s what works for you. Which decade are you going to represent on Thursday evening? Friday is our Ukrainian night with a Christmas theme so pack your favorite Ukie outfit. Better remember your dancing shoes for the Banquet and Ball so you can dance the night away to the wonderful sound of Zirka!

Make sure you keep up to date by visiting our Facebook/Instagram pages “75th UOL Convention 2022” or our website, https://www.orthodoxcarnegie.org/75thuolconvention

The 75th UOL Convention committee is sponsoring a “Ukrainian” basket raffle at the convention (similar to Chinese auctions only donated and raffled by Ukrainians). We would like all chapters to be represented, therefore we are requesting chapters/organizations/individuals for donations of baskets for this raffle. Any type of basket is welcome (cooking, candy, garden, something from your region, etc.).

If you would be willing to help and donate a basket, please contact Cindy Haluszczak (tetaksenia@aol.com; 412-708-6835) or Tracey Sally (twinn1_21@hotmail.com; 412-327-8694). The baskets can be brought to the convention. If within the Carnegie area, perhaps we can make arrangements to pick them up. We cannot wait to see everyone at the Convention!
