On the 24th of July, the Ukrainian Orthodox League held its 74th annual Convention, hosted by St. Vladimir Ukrainian Orthodox Cathedral in Philadelphia, PA. The thing that set this convention apart was the way it stood, Lord willing, on the threshold between the worst of the COVID-time and what comes next. All of the addresses and conversations recognized the challenges of the coming years, but framed them as opportunities for evangelization, the very thing that the UOL – dedicated to the Church, devoted to its youth – was made for. With the energy, devotion, and clarity of vision evident at this convention, there is every reason to expect success in this time of opportunity.

The Convention began with a Moleban at St. Vladimir’s, served by the longtime Senior UOL Spiritual Advisor, Very Rev. Fr. Taras Naumenko. Afterwards, Karen Ferraro, the President of the Executive Board of the UOL called the meeting to order and we offered a moment of silence and prayed for the blessed repose of all the UOL members and clergy who reposed in the past year. She then set the agenda: it is time for us to take action and lay the groundwork for the future of the Church. She noted that we are called to be beacons of the light of Christ – it is time for us to step up to that cause.

In his opening remarks, His Eminence, Metropolitan Antony shared the wisdom his 49 years of priestly ministry have given him. As always, he encouraged us to live in Christ, applying the lessons of the saints, to include Saints Olha and Volodymyr, the enlighteners of Rus–Ukraine, as we share His love. He reminded us that Christ wants “mercy more than sacrifice” and asked us whether we demand more of people than Christ Himself does. Later he remarked on our great need for connection and lamented the way our families, parishes, dioceses, and faithful have drifted apart.

He challenged the UOL to re-energize a culture that naturally treasures community and not rest on our laurels. After commending us all for our work and service, he finished by paraphrasing the words of Christ (Matthew 25:23); “Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; I will set you over more. Enter into the joy of your master.”

His Eminence Archbishop Daniel began his remarks by noting the great toll that COVID-19 has had throughout the world. Nor have Christian leaders been immune; “bishops, pastors, evangelists, and other church leaders have succumbed, as well as their flocks... ministries throughout the world that have lost their leaders and members are on the verge of collapse.” He noted that analysts use the analytic framework of VUCA: “Volatility, Uncertainty, Complexity, and Ambiguity” as a way to help us understand the depth of our crisis, but added that that in Christ there is always hope; “God is in control and His purposes for His people and for the world WILL be fulfilled.” He reworked VUCA to describe the Christian response to crisis: “Vision, Understanding, Courage, and Action.” He developed this theme as follows;

Understanding. We need to understand the times. Yes, we need science to give to us rational explanations of what is happening, but also we desperately need – US – His creation, the men and women of God who will make plain the vision, set it in our context, enabling us to understand what is happening and our part in it.

Courage. We need courage not to retreat, not to sink under heavy burdens, not to see only opposition and obstacles in our path. Habakkuk was surrounded by catastrophe but feared only the Lord (Habakkuk 3:2). We need courage to go forward when all seems hopeless, to go forward with compassion and a heart of love to bring comfort to the afflicted. St. Paul wrote to us and encouraged not to constrain the love of Christ, which compels us to move on.

Action. All this must lead to action. Action requires resolve. It means taking the initiative, breaking out of our apathy, deciding what is to be done and doing it. It means seeking God’s will and guidance and then acting according to His calling.

He finished by calling us to faith in God and His victory, noting that “the earth will be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord as the waters cover the sea” (Habakkuk 2:20) and encouraging us “to embrace Christian VUCA (Continued on page 3)
Glory to Jesus Christ!  Слава Ісусу Христу!

What a wonderful convention we had on July 24th! Although we could not be together in person, the focus discussions during convention had excellent participation and yielded some great ideas. We were also blessed to have both His Eminence Metropolitan Antony and His Eminence Archbishop Daniel address the convention and offer their ideas.

I’m honored to have been once again selected as President of the Senior National Executive Board of the Ukrainian Orthodox League of the USA and continue serving the Church! I’m hoping this third and final year (per our constitution) will see us having more and more in-person events as we evolve into the UOL of the future.

At the August 5th Post-Convention meeting of the old and new National Executive Boards, a motion was carried to donate $1,700 to All Saints Camp. Mentioned at our convention, these are funds that were donated to ASC in lieu of our normal convention “late fees” plus other generous donations by our membership.

Three post-convention “breakout” sessions were selected:

- Chapter “Light”: A concept to allow our younger parishes to essentially have a UOL chapter but with less requirements
- Youth under 18 and Young Adults
- Growing UOL membership

A National Executive Board “breakout” session was also established. This session will address producing periodic UOL YouTube videos, spiritual projects, outreach to the needy, presenting our Ukrainian-American culture, and more. We welcome YOUR ideas for this meeting! Email me at president@uolfousa.org with your suggestions.

Congratulations to all of the new officers of the Ukrainian Orthodox League of the USA and thank you to last year’s board members. I’d like to recognize those who served last year and are not continuing on the board this year, namely: Daria Pishko Komichak, who served on the board for many years including her most recent role as Treasurer. Daria kept pristine books for the UOL, which ensured a successful transition to our new Treasurer. She was also a major contributor in other areas, such as Membership. John Holowko has ended his run as Junior UOL Advisor. We thank John for his prior and continued dedication to the youth of the UOC of USA! Heartfelt thanks to the entire old and new UOL National Executive Board! You are all “movers and shakers” and our Church is so fortunate to have you give of your many talents!

MESSAGE FROM THE JUNIOR UOL PRESIDENT

Natalie Hrytsay

Слава Ісусу Христу! Glory to Jesus Christ!

This year was indeed very different. The Jr. National Board worked extremely hard in order for us to host our Convention at All Saints Camp. On July 12th, we held our annual Convention meeting and also worked on our Committee reports. I would like to give a big thanks to Mr. Josh Oryhon and Ms. Natalie Kapeluck for allowing us to have a one day Convention at camp. Even though it was much different from past years, it was just as successful. The entire board along with all of our members and campers worked hard to complete all of our tasks in the span of 1 day. Lots of great ideas were brought to the table and we got to hear many different perspectives from all those who attended.

Due to our restrictions, the Junior National Board had to meet online for all of our meetings. Although it made our lives a lot harder, it taught us a lot. Personally, I learned that we have to make do with whatever we can. My board members and I had to adapt to this new way of communication, but it did not stop us from getting our work done. We made it a priority to keep in contact with each other. The success this year would not have been possible without the dedication of my fellow board members and advisors. Mizzie Zetick, our president this year, worked harder than anyone I have ever seen. She made sure to keep everyone in check and had us all working diligently. Our advisors, Father John Charest and Mr. John Holowko, made sure we were all getting our work done and always took time out of their personal lives to give us advice and help us out when needed. Finally, I would like to give a big thank you to Hryzstyna, Kateryna and Rachel. These girls were a great addition to the board and truly lightened us all up. They made sure to get all the work done and we all worked as a team to make it a terrific year. I truly believe that this year would not have been possible without them.

This year, we welcome a new Junior Advisor and new members to the board. Mrs. Andrea Swan from Philadelphia, PA will be the new advisor. As a fellow member of the Philadelphia chapter, I know she will put in her best effort and will always be there to support us and help us make it a great year. Our new board members are Natalie Swan, Mia Zetick and Stephen Sheptak. We’ve all been going to ASC together for years and I am excited to welcome these driven souls to the board. These new members will bring a new light to us. They will help us get new ideas out to the chapters and potentially bring new members to the Jr. UOL as well. While the pandemic does take a toll on us, we will work through any challenges that come our way.

2021-22 Jr. UOL Board:

President: Natalie Hrytsay, Philadelphia PA
Vice President: Rachel Harendza, Scranton PA
Secretary: Mia Zetick, Philadelphia PA
Financial Secretary: Stephen Sheptak, Pittsburgh PA
Treasurer: Natalie Swan, Philadelphia PA

Every year we work to keep our chapters and children involved, especially this year. Due to COVID, we lost a lot of members, because they were unable to leave their homes or they were worried for their safety. This 2021-22 year, we will all work to grow our chapters. It is crucial for us to stay involved and communicate with each other. Please feel free to reach out to me or any of our current members on the board for questions about growing your chapter. All of our information is listed on the uolofusa.com website.

This year we celebrated 60 years of the Jr. UOL. This was a momentous celebration for us. We celebrated at camp during our one day Convention and we even had cupcakes made for all who attended. This is a great time for us to reflect on the past 60 years. We look back at all the past conventions and remember all of the amazing times we had. Now, we need to look to the future. We need to work hard now, so that when we look back in 40 years for the 100th year Anniversary, we will see all of our accomplishments and how hard all of our past and present board members worked.

Please remember to communicate with your liaisons and your chapter members. And don’t forget to check your emails regularly. The members of the Jr. UOL constantly reach out to advisors and priests to make sure everything is going smoothly. Remember to send in your membership dues and election forms. All forms are on the uol website. Finally, if you have any questions or concerns, email me at juniorpres@uolofusa.org. I will get back to you as soon as I can.

Thank you for this amazing honor of being the Junior National President and I can’t wait to make 2021-22 another amazing year.

In Christ,

Natalie Hrytsay

Very Rev. Protopresbyter Stephen Hallick-Holutiak Senior UOL Recognition Award
Presented to Subdeacon James Cummings
Submitted by Joe Goode

The Very Reverend Protopresbyter Stephen Hallick-Holutiak Senior Recognition award is given to a UOL member who demonstrates outstanding contributions to the League. At our 74th Annual Convention in July, this award was given to Subdeacon James Cummings.

James and his family are not from a Ukrainian nor an Orthodox Christian background. Having faithfully served in the armed forces and overcoming many cultural and personal obstacles, James was drawn to the Orthodox Church and faith. He and his family were warmly welcomed into St. John the Baptist UOC in Sharon, Pa. where his faith continued to be nurtured.

To further explore and grow in his faith, he enrolled and has completed the diaconate course at St. Sophia UOC Seminary, graduating first in his class.

James has served at the altar under several parish priests, assisting them in all aspects of the Orthodox faith. He works with the altar boys and serves as a reader. He maintains the sanctuary, church, and social hall as custodian. Additionally, he volunteered to restore the altar and side tables by painting and gilding the ornaments. He keeps the brass cleaned and polished, changes the seasonal altar vestments and coverings, and helps set up the church for festive services.

James is currently the president of the Senior UOL chapter at St. John and also actively serves on the church board.

May God continue to bless and guide him as he continues his studies at the seminary and works for the church and UOL.

Congratulations!!

The meeting finished with a preview of what we can look forward to (aside from meeting in person, Lord willing!) at the 75th Annual Convention in Carnegie, PA from 27 – 31 July, 2022.

Until next year, in Carnegie, PA!

Sr. Spiritual Advisor (app. by Metropolitan Antony) His Eminence Archbishop Daniel.

I send greetings on behalf of the new senior officers to the newly elected National Executive Board of our Junior UOL, in the capable hands of President Natalie Hrytsay, Spiritual Advisor Fr. John Charest, and Junior Advisor Andi Swan.

Look for positive changes coming as a result of our convention and breakout sessions on our UOL Facebook page and our UOL Website uolofusa.org! We’ll be talking soon!

I’m excited that our new UOL year is underway, as is planning for our 2022 UOL Convention in Carnegie themed “In the beginning...”: See you there in July 2022!

"Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new." 2 Corinthians 5:17

In Christ,
Karen Ferraro
Hello all! The Junior UOL members were very busy in the spring with multiple activities in preparation for Pascha. During Lent, the St. Vladimir Juniors sponsored a new project. This year they collected pull tabs from cans which were donated to the Ronald McDonald house and recycled in exchange for money to help support the families living there.

On Palm Sunday, the Juniors brought back another fundraiser. The Juniors made Palm Crosses which were pinned on every member of the church.

Also, on Palm Sunday, the Juniors hosted an Easter egg hunt for the parish youth. It was fun for the children in our parish to look for hidden Easter eggs in our parish yard.

Lastly, Easter baskets were assembled and distributed to the shut-ins from our parish as a way of showing them that they are in our thoughts and prayers during this time of the year.

Congratulations to all of the winners!

Metro J. Baran Achievement Award Presented to Fr. John Charest
Submitted by Joe Goodge

The Metro J. Baran Award is presented for outstanding service with the youth of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church. The award was instituted to honor the memory of Metro (Jimmie) Baran for his many years of dedicated service and efforts in working with the Junior UOL. This year at the Annual 74th convention this award was received by Fr. John Charest of Sts. Peter and Paul in Carnegie, Pa. He has served as the National Junior UOL Spiritual Advisor for the past two years and previously served as the Junior Advisor. In both of these positions he provided regular contact with the Junior Executive Board and attended all meetings and National Jr. UOL events and conventions. He conducts Bible Study for the teenage group on faith, hope and love ministry.

Fr. John advocates for orphaned children through family hosting programs so orphaned youth can connect with loving families if even for only a short while. He conducts youth outreach activities at Sts. Peter and Paul for other parishes such as St. Anthony Parish and others in the Carnegie area.

Father Charest demonstrates his compassion and desire to help children and youth understand and learn about our faith by patiently guiding them and providing meaningful explanations to questions in ways that they will understand. He “helps” youth to be involved and doesn’t just “tell” them to be involved. Fr. John is very deserving of this award. He will show the light of this award for years to come by being a shining example for others to strive to follow in his footsteps.

Senior Chapter Achievement Award 2021
Sts. Peter and Paul Carnegie, PA
Submitted by Joe Goodge

The Senior UOL Chapter this year was presented to Sts. Peter and Paul, Carnegie, Pa for its outstanding work. This past year, Covid-19 made it extremely challenging for UOL chapters to be active in their work. While chapters sometimes ran on autopilot with their program of activities, that couldn’t happen this year. Carnegie UOL demonstrated some very creative ways to remain active and productive during the pandemic. They had the leadership capable of thinking and working outside the box. Their chapter consists of 43 active members and met during the pandemic via Zoom and sometimes in person. They conducted fundraising projects which enabled them to make donations to MJSF scholarship, Souper Bowl, Parish Scholarships, Parish Bells repair, Chapter Project Donation, and various other local, regional, and national gifts.

The chapter also conducted social projects/activities as well as Missions and Caregiving activities which consisted of Ukrainian Food Festival, pysanky workshop and sale, Great Lent & Advent Prayer Pal, Seminarians Plus Club and Sunshine Committee to name a few. Chapter members participated in the choir, nativity caroling, as altar servers, assisted the National Junior UOL, Ukrainian Folk Dancing, Parish officers, as altar readers, as members of the National Executive Board. While everything had to be adjusted this year due to the pandemic, the members of the chapter were up to the task. There were challenges and difficulties to overcome, but with a lot of patience, teamwork, and prayerful work the chapter members found ways to accomplish their goals. Congratulations on a job well done!
